SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

The defendant must comply with the following special conditions as ordered by the Court and implemented by the U.S. Probation Office:

- 1. The defendant shall pay any financial penalty that is imposed by this judgment.
- 2. The defendant shall provide the U.S. Probation Office with access to any requested financial information.
- 3. The defendant shall not incur new credit charges or open additional lines of credit without the approval of the U.S. Probation Office unless she is in compliance with the installment payment schedule.
- 4. The defendant shall not accept or maintain any employment in which she would have access to money or assume a fiduciary position. Further, the defendant shall allow her probation officer to notify her employer of her current criminal status.
- 5. The defendant shall obtain verifiable employment that shall be pre-approved by her probation officer. In addition, the defendant shall not be self-employed in any field related to loans or investments. Further, the defendant shall allow her probation officer to notify her employer of her current criminal status.
- 6. The defendant shall participate in a mental health evaluation and/or treatment program. She shall take all medications prescribed to her by a licensed psychiatrist or physician.

Upon a finding of a violation of supervision, I understand the Court may: (1) revoke supervision; (2) extend the term of supervision; and/or (3) modify the condition of supervision.

These conditions have been read to me. I fully understand the conditions and have been provided a copy of them.
